United Way/BRTC Success Scholarship Eligibility Criteria & Guidelines

- The United Way Success Scholarship shall be awarded to BRTC students who have a documented financial need as determined by the FAFSA. All applicants MUST have already completed a FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid).
- These scholarships shall be awarded to students who are attending either part time (6-11 credit hours) or full-time (12 or more credit hours).
- The award amounts to be given are $500 for part-time students and $1000 for full-time students.
- The awarding committee shall have the discretion as to how many part-time or full-time awards to give.
- Recipients of the scholarship will be selected and notified no later than mid-term; however, the actual disbursements of the scholarship monies will be contingent upon the successful completion of the number of credits specified above, with the money awarded at the conclusion of the semester.
